

© Copyright NSCAA 2014

Attacking Transition Activity: Midfield possession to an overload attack. Attacking team must complete a certain number of passes before playing into striker. Midfield players can then release to attack the goal (Options: vary numbers of attackers and allow recovery defenders). Defending group have two outlet targets. Switch teams up after set number of attempts.